Real ID - Reminder

If you've been putting off that trip to the DMV, now is a good time to start planning for how you'll get your Real ID (the gold star). Originally due May 3, 2023, the TSA required all driver's licenses presented at checkpoints to be Real ID compliant for travelers 18 and older.

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) had planned to start requiring Real IDs for traveler on Oct 1, 2020, but pushed the deadline back during the Covid-19 pandemic shut down or operated at reduced capacity that faced many with significant backlogs. This was because many states' physical Department of Motor Vehicles locations shut down or operated at reduced capacity, then faced significant backlogs.

The federal government has granted another final extension, setting the May 7, 2023 as the new deadline.

If you don't have that gold star on the upper right hand corner of your driver's license, you need to provide your passport book or card when traveling.
